School of Music

Spring 2016

Instructor: Courtney Gammill, Graduate Teaching Assistant

Email: courtney.gammill@umontana.edu

Office: #11 (in the basement)

Office Hours: By appointment only

Class Time and Location: MWF 12:10-1:00, Music 204

Final: Monday, May 9th 10:10 am to 12:10 pm

Required text and materials:

- The Singing Book, 3rd Edition - Meribeth Dayme & Cynthia Vaughn (ISBN 978-0-393-92025-3)
 - The second edition is also useable, but be aware that some of the song selections are different. You NEED the CD that comes with the book.
- a notebook for class notes, vocal exercises, and comments (strongly suggested)

Course Description:

This course is an introduction to solo and group singing. In a positive and uplifting environment, we will work to grasp basic vocal technique (i.e. good posture, breathing, etc.). As a class we will build confidence in your vocal ability, as well as in your ability to sing in front of an audience.

Course Objectives:

- Understand singing basics
- Sing in groups, as well as alone
- Build confidence in group and solo performances

Assignments:

- Participation Grades
 - You will be given ten participation grades throughout the semester. These will be given on dates determined by the instructor and unknown to the students.
- Preparation of assigned repertoire.
 - Students will perform four solos and three group songs throughout the semester. It is your responsibility to work on the music outside of class. Only the final solo must be memorized.
- Critique of a live performance.

- Students are required to attend one of the approved vocal performances and write a response. The critique should be a minimum of two pages, double spaced. A rubric will be provided. You must attach the program/ticket from the performance to your critique. Your critique will be due at the end of the semester, but I strongly suggest you write your critique shortly after attending the performance of your choice. You may turn it in when you have completed it.
- Discussion Board Posts
 - Every week there will be a video posted to Moodle. You will be required to post to the related discussion board at least twice every week. Some weeks you may have a prompt and some weeks you may not. You will have all week to post. Videos will go up on Sunday and you must submit your posts before Friday at 5:00 pm. There is no length requirement for your posts, but both of them should have some kind of substance.
- Take Home Assignments
 - There will be no written tests. Your “test” grades will be given on any take home work you are assigned throughout the semester. These assignments will probably be few and far between. Keep that in mind if you are tempted to skip one.

Expectations:

- Cell phones silenced and put away.
- Prepare and practice repertoire and vocal exercises outside of class.
- Complete all assignments.
- Come to class! Be on time and be prepared.
- Be professional. This includes treating your classmates with respect, especially in regards to performances. Rude, hurtful, or negative comments will not be tolerated.
- Dress appropriately for performances. We will have a short discussion on this topic in class.
